Unique Style At A Popular Price — The BR-343 Gospel Blueridge!

There's never been another guitar like it – and Saga has it first! It's the new BR-343 Gospel model with beautiful original designs of white pearl and abalone in the peghead and beautiful “trinity” inlaid pearl position marks on the rosewood fingerboard. This stunning collector's piece has a vintage sunburst finish on body and neck and black binding with multiple black/white purfling accents.

The BR-343 is in the popular 000 size and features a solid Sitka Spruce top with scalloped bracing in the forward X pattern. Back and sides are solid mahogany and the slim, low profile mahogany neck has an adjustable truss rod and the traditional dovetail neck/body joint. This fine guitar features a bone nut and saddle. Vintage butterbean style tuners complete the distinguished look of the new Blueridge BR-343 Gospel guitar.

The unique beauty of this unusual guitar will shine through on any stage or music store display—it's sure to be another runaway sales success from Saga!
