Saga Is The Exclusive U.S. Distributor Of Mahalo Ukulele Line!

San Francisco, CA – January 1, 2005 - Mahalo Ukuleles, a complete line of instruments from entry level to advanced models in all of the most traditional designs is now exclusively distributed by Saga Musical Instruments in the US!

In addition to the more traditional models available, nothing will catch your customer's eye more effectively than the U-30 Painted Series. Available in a rainbow of bright colors—each instrument is matched with its own colored bag—all at the incredible price of $25.95! These perfect beginner ukuleles also have guitar-style tuners; which make tuning accurate and easy.

The newest addition to the Mahalo family, and possibly the most exciting is the UNG-30 Uke-Guitars series. Each instrument features all of the same great colors of the U-30 Painted Series with a six-string neck. Perfect for the guitar player who wants a smaller body instrument for practice or travel.

If you don't believe the amazing quality and value of Mahalo Ukuleles, just ask Ms. Justine Michioka, Miss Hawaii 2004, about the merits of these fine instruments. She never misses an opportunity to play hers, so don't let these values pass you or your customers by either!
